

I am opposed to allowing corporations to own print media and broadcast media in the same city/town.

I believe it will stifle dissenting opinion even more than is happening in our media today.